JOHN GRUEL.

John W. Tipton,

A Rochester upholsterer unconsciously perpetrated a great joke at the expense of his teacher, the other day. The lady was announcing to her pupils the holiday on the twenty-second of February, and asking them some questions concerning its observance, among others, why the birthday of Washington should be celebrated more than that of any one else.

"Why," she added, "more than mine? You may tell me," she said, to a little fellow eager to explain.

"Because," he exclaimed, with great vivacity "because he never told a lie."

An Ordinary License.

A neat little girl, apparently about nineteen, came to the Frederick Hotel, a few days ago, entered the clerk's office, and removing her bonnet, inquired if Dr. Bradley was in. The doctor, who was present, promptly and politely responded in the affirmative.

"Are you," says the lady, "the gentleman we are to have for Governor?"

"Why, madam," said the doctor, with modest confusion; "there has been some talk on that subject."

"Then you are the very gentleman I want. Have you any licenses to dispose of?"

"Yes, madam; will you have a retailer's or an ordinary license?"

"An ordinary will do, doctor; I am only going to marry a little Dutchman."

WELCOME TO SPRING.

WELCOME, spring-time, welcome, In all thy bright array,

With all thy fair companions, We welcome thee to-day.

Come melt the frosts of winter, new life and hope impart, Give sunshine to the weary, joy to the drooping heart.

Welcome, spring-time, welcome, To earth looks dark and drear, Fling thy rays and gayest flowers, To make it bright and fair--

Come with thy smiling waters, with music sweet and glad, To cheer earth's tired pilgrims, and make the desert sad.

Welcome, spring-time, welcome, Thou art ever welcome here, With flowers and sunshine fair, We welcome, welcome thee.

When God does send us home to dwell with Him away, May angels welcome us as we welcome thee to-day.

OH! MURMUR NOT.

Oh! murmur not at cruel fate-- Thy Father's wisdom knew Why in this lowly sphere of life Thy footsteps must pursue;

'Twas He, not fate, decreed thy lot-- He knew thy wayward mind, And marked thy path 'midst lowlier scenes, Thy heart to Heaven to bind!

Repine not that the murky clouds Adversity must wear, Have circled in thy spirit's hour, And nurtured thought and care--

'Twas He who spread the gloomy cloud And brightened casual drapery; But see! the silvery living light Beyond life's shadows gleams!

Unfathomable.

An Infidel Woman.

Very rarely do we find one of the gentler sex an infidel. Though woman was first in the transgression, she was last at the cross, and first at the tomb of Jesus. Generally, her heart is more open to the gospel than man's. Only occasionally do we find a woman living in the light of truth an avowed infidel.

The following sad incident occurred in one of our Western cities. A Bible distributor one day called on a German woman, who, with her son, a fine boy of ten years, was busy at work. Said he Bible agent,

"Would you like to buy a Bible?"

"No, indeed!" said the woman, angrily; "what could I make of one, when I don't believe a word of it?"

"What, not believe God's holy Word?"

"No, I don't believe it. My father and mother did not believe it; they are dead. My husband did not believe it, neither."

"My friend, who made your son?"

"I know, and I don't care."

"I make it, if he came into there?"

"I don't trouble myself about these things?"

The boy instantly spoke out, saying, "Mother, you know that God made the sun."

The mother looked angrily at him. But he repeated the words, "God made the sun, and moon and stars."

The infidel mother was silenced by her own child. The Bible distributor then uttered some earnest words of solemn warning; but her heart seemed closed against his appeals. The little boy's answer reminds one of that Scripture, "Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength, because of their little enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger."

He Never Told a Lie.

A Rochester upholsterer unconsciously perpetrated a great joke at the expense of his teacher, the other day. The lady was announcing to her pupils the holiday on the twenty-second of February, and asking them some questions concerning its observance, among others, why the birthday of Washington should be celebrated more than that of any one else.

How we Act, not How we Look.

"O, Tommy, what a lovely little woman! Come and see!" cried Harry Wilde, as he stood at the window of his father's house in a pleasant English town. Tommy ran to the window and looked out, and laughed louder than his brother. It was indeed a funny sight to see.

In the midst of a pelting rain, through the mud and running water, there waddled along the queerest little polypoly figure you can imagine. It was a dwarf woman, who, though no taller than a child of seven or eight years, wore an enormous bonnet, and carried an overgrown umbrella. Her clothes were tucked up about her in a queer way, and altogether she was a very laugh-at-able creature.

As she passed, she looked up; and oh! such an odd face as she had. The nose was large and long, as though it had kept on growing, and the other features gave out. Indeed, it was so big that the eyes had got into a way of looking at it constantly, which did not improve their beauty. The hair was bushy, and of a lively red; but the mouth was quiet and good-humored, and the little cross eyes had a merry, kindly twinkle in them.

"Well," said Harry, "if I were such an absurd-looking creature, I wouldn't show myself. I'd hide by day, and only come out in the night, like an owl. Wouldn't you, Tommy?"

"Did God make her, Harry?"

"Yes, He made what there is of her, I suppose; but it wasn't worth while to go on with her!"

"Harry! Harry!" cried the mother of the little boy; "you must not talk so; it is very wicked. That poor little dwarf may be of much use in the world, and do a great deal of good, if she has a kind heart; and she looks as though she had."

"I should like to know of what use such a poor wretch can be," said Harry, shrugging his shoulders.

"God knows," said Mrs. Wilde, "and He did not make her in vain."

The next day was Christmas. The rain was over, and it was clear and cold.

"Hurrah!" cried Harry from the window; "there's our wee bit woman again. Her hair is as fiery as ever. I wonder the rain didn't put it out. She might warm her hands in it, if it were not for carrying that big basket."

Mrs. Wilde, reproving Harry for his thoughtless speech, looked out. The dwarf was trudging slowly along, bearing a heavy basket. The good lady was seized with a strong desire to know more about the strange little creature; so she hurried to her room, put on a bonnet and cloak, went out and followed after her, quietly.

She had to go on a long way, before her curiosity was satisfied; but at last she saw the dwarf enter a miserable house, in the suburbs of the town. Mrs. Wilde stole up to the window, and ventured to look in.

She saw the dwarf, surrounded by a crowd of shouting children, to whom she was giving Christmas cake, toys and clothes from her basket. She saw her give medicine and food to a poor woman, who lay on a bed in a corner. She heard her say, "Have the coals come?" and the woman answered, "Yes, and the blankets

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN SEWING MACHINES!*EMPIRE SHUTTLE MACHINE.

Patented February 14th, 1890.

SALE ROOM, NO. 921 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

THIS machine is constructed on entirely new principles of mechanism, possessing many valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be "the most perfect machine in the world."

The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines:

1. Excessive fatigue to the operator.
2. Inability to get out of order.
3. Expense, trouble, and loss of time in repairing.
4. Incapacity to sew every description of material.
5. Disagreeable noise while in operation.

The Empire Sewing Machine is exempt from all these objections.

It has a straight needle, perpendicular action, makes the "lock or Shuttle Stitch," which "Gode's" says is "the best," and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nankeen Muslin, with cotton, linen or silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND

J. W. Bradley's celebrated Patent Duplex Elliptic

(OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT.

THE wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Dress, and all occasions when it is desired to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress, and a valuable quality in crinoline, not found in any Single Spring Skirt.

A Lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies, they are superior to all others.

They will not bend or break like the Single Spring Skirt, and will retain their perfect and graceful shape when they are folded, and they will have been thrown aside as useless. The Hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom Rods are not only double springs, but twice (or double) covered; preventing them from wearing out when dragging down stoops, stairs, &c.

The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard Skirt of the Fashionable World.

To enjoy the following inimitable advantages in Crinolines, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish appearance and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, inquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article.

CAUTION.—To guard against IMITATION be particular to NOTICE that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also Notice that every Hoop will add a pin being passed through the center, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other Skirt.

For Sale in all Stores where First Class skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere.

Manufactured by the Sole Owners of the Patent—WESTS, BRADLEY & CARY, 97 Chambers & 79 & 81 Beale St., N. Y. Jan. 15—32a.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of friends, and friends, loss of money, &c., have become depressed. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and position of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Let us not consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may regain here as favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out and enclosed, and a receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest character furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair. Address, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO, P. O. Drawer 293, Buffalo, N. Y. March 19, 1897—1y

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

OR restoring hair upon bald heads (and whatever causes it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smooth face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months. A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. These assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different Preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli!

It will not cost you anything, and it will fully come up to our representations. If your hair does not keep it, send us one dollar and we will forward it, post paid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction is not given. Sec. 4.—That the affairs of the said association shall be conducted by a board of directors, to consist of twenty-eight members of the association, a majority of whom shall reside in the city of Philadelphia and its vicinity, to be elected annually, by ballot, on the third Thursday of May in the said city, by the persons entitled to vote in the annual election of the members of the said association: Provided, That the failure to elect on the day named, shall not serve the said corporation, but the election may be held on any subsequent day, and the directors in office shall continue therein until their successors are chosen: And provided, That the directors shall have power to fill vacancies in their own body that may occur, or to elect, or to fill, or to act in any member prior to the next ensuing election. ## Horrible Murder.

A horrible case of self-inflicted mutilation occurred in Audrain county, Mo., last week. A stranger, who calls himself Robert Younkis, was brought into Mexico a few days since, totally blind, from having, with a stick in his own hands, as he reports, punched both his eyes out. He seems to be perfectly rational, though Younkis says himself that he was insane when he did the deed, and it seems impossible to entertain any other conclusion. Younkis says he is thirty-four years of age, seems disposed to be non-committal about his residence or activity, and hints at a love affair that did not run very smoothly as the cause of his temporary insanity.

There is now living in Lawrence county, Ohio, a gentleman who separated from his wife, in Pennsylvania, many years ago. He came to Southern Ohio, and married a Miss P., of Marietta. After the second wife's death a daughter by the first marriage brought about a reconciliation between her father and her mother, and they were remarried more than twenty years after the date of their separation—the first wife becoming the third.

The spring freshet has brought the water to the Susquehanna river to a great height, and it is broken the lumber boom at Williamsport. A large number of logs are running out.

The Collectorship.

We understand that C. W. Ashcom, Esq., recently appointed Collector of this Revenue District, has not yet been commissioned, but expects to take possession of the office on the 1st of May. It is his intention to make an official visit to the counties composing the District, and he may be expected to be in this county the first week in May.

Speaker Colfax's Lecture.

Arrangements have been made for the delivery in Gettysburg, on Thursday the 9th of May, by the Hon. SCHUYLER COLFAX, of his celebrated Lecture "Across the Continent." Mr. Colfax is now upon his lecturing tour, and may be confidently expected here. His lecture is very popular, interesting and eloquent, and Mr. C. will no doubt have a reception befitting his high position, and distinguished public services.

Ex-Sheriff Wolf has purchased about 5 acres of land, on the York turnpike, from Nicholas O'Leary, for $650.

Sheriff Hane has gone to Philadelphia with four prisoners.

By our exchanges from all quarters of the country, it would appear that the wheat fields are presenting a most beautiful appearance, indicating a most bountiful crop this year, unless some blight now unforeseen, should prevent. Through our section of country the appearance of the wheat crop has never been more promising. This delightful prospect is cheering to all who have been laboring under the pressure of high prices for the "staple of life."

The "Star."

The publication of this journal will continue as before, for the present.

The funeral of the deceased Editor took place on Tuesday last, and the remains were followed to their resting-place in Evergreen Cemetery, by a very large number of relatives and friends, and the two orders of Odd Fellows and Ancient York Masons, to both of which orders he belonged. The Masonic services at the grave were very impressive and attracted much attention.

The Hanover Branch Railroad Company have declared a dividend of Five per cent on the capital stock, clear of all taxes, payable on or after May 6. The affairs of the Road are in a flourishing condition.

The Business and Town Council of Hanover a few days ago made a tour of inspection through all the streets, alleys, and lanes of the borough, examining into their sanitary condition. This is a good example for our City Fathers to follow. The town cannot be too clean.

The act incorporating the National Home-Steid, Gettysburg, having been incorrectly published in one of the town papers, we have been requested to publish it correct.

Col. George F. McFarland, at present a Clerk in the School Department at Harrisburg, has been appointed by Gov. Geary, Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphan Schools in Pennsylvania. Col. McFarland is an able man in the cause of education, and was for several years at the head of a flourishing Institution. He lost a leg at the battle of Gettysburg, whilst making a charge upon the rebels: and is well known to many of our citizens. We know him favorably, and are much pleased at his appointment.

Mr. Welsh has been confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster at Chambersburg.

The final disposition of the Austrian mission will probably be developed within a day. The Senate will, it is believed, give expression to its sentiments in regard to Mr. Motley by resolution, and thus apprise the President of the fact that they desire Mr. Motley to remain at Vienna, which desire is generally entertained in the Senate, irrespective of politics. It is also believed that the State Department would look with favor upon Mr. Motley's retention. Mr. Raymond's nomination, therefore, will neither be confirmed nor rejected, but laid on the table until next December.

The death of the great English traveler in Africa, Dr. Livingston, has been confirmed by the last arrivals. He was murdered by a band of savage natives, who attacked him and his party. Part of the men with him escaped. The Doctor's body was afterwards recovered, and decently interred.

Among the appropriations by the last Legislature was one of $3,000 to the Gettysburg Memorial Association. We have no objections to this, but it would have been more agreeable to the border sufferers, if the bill in their favor had passed.

Senator Ferry, of Connecticut, thinks it a fact over which the Republican party has a right to rejoice, that the Democrats carried the State only by taking a candidate who always denied the right of secession, and who voted for a money to carry on the war, and also for the Constitutional amendment abolishing slavery. A year and a half ago negro suffrage in Connecticut was defeated by a very large majority. It now comes within nine hundred votes of being endorsed; another year he thinks will do the work.

The purchase of Russian America by the United States is not viewed with very lively feelings of satisfaction by the English newspapers, but they generally adopt the sensible view that it is none of their business, and therefore protests or complaints are out of place.

Meeting of the Carlisle Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Carlisle met in the Old School Presbyterian Church, Harrisburg, on the 9th inst., and in the absence of the Rev. Mr. Schenck, was opened with a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Creigh, of Mercersburg. The Rev. J. Smith Gordon, of Pannettsville, was elected moderator. The Presbytery was in session three days, and the attendance was quite large, there being about sixty ministers and rolling elders in attendance. Resolutions were unanimously adopted approving the noble stand taken by Gov. Geary upon the temperance question, and also the course pursued by the minority in the House and the minority in the Senate on the Sunday car question. The next stated meeting of Presbytery will be held in October next, in Emmittsburg, Maryland. The adjourned meeting in June is at Hagerstown.

The Latest Fashions.

Since the invention and successful introduction of the Celebrated Duplex Elliptic (or double) Spring Hoop Skirt, by Mr. J. W. Bradley, of New York, the ladies throughout the country have given up the idea of discarding the fashion of wearing hoopskirts on account of the peculiar and graceful manner in which Duplex Skirts adapt themselves to every exigency and emergency. So generally acceptable have these Skirts become that the ladies regard them as a special favorite, in view of the superior flexibility, lightness and durability combined in their Manufacture. They also consider them a far more Economical and Comfortable Hoop Skirt than ever has or can be made for all Crowded Assemblies, for the Promenade or House Dress. Any lady after wearing one of these Skirts will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use.

Long experience in the manufacture of Hoop Skirts, has proven to the proprietors of this invention, that Single-springs will always retain their stiff unyielding and bungling style which has ever characterized them, whereas the Double Spring Hoop or the Duplex Elliptic, will be found free from those objections. Notwithstanding the ability of the manufacturers, Messrs. Wests, Bradley and Cary, to turn out over six thousand Skirts per day from their Large Manufactories in New York, they feel obliged to request all merchants ordering the Duplex Elliptic Skirts, to send their orders a few days before they are wanted, if possible, as they are most constantly oversold some days ahead.

In Liberty district, Frederick county, Maryland, some of the Democracy voted a ticket for delegates to the Constitutional Convention composed of three white men and three colored men. The colored men are stated to feel very indignant at being placed upon a Democratic ticket, and threaten to avenge the insult. So says the Frederick Republican.

Sentence of Lottery Managers. Boston, April 13.—In the Superior Court today, Judge Morton sentenced Luther M. Harris and James W. Harris, brothers, to pay a fine of $7,000 each for being engaged in the lottery business.

At a meeting of the Baltimore Presbytery on Thursday, Rev. R. B. Johns (colored), accepted a call from Madison street Church, and Rev. Mr. Portvance, Rev. Geo. P. Hays, and Rev. A. B. Criss were appointed to install him on Wednesday next.

A debate of interest took place in the U. S. Senate on Thursday last, on the proposition to offer their invitation to the belligerents in Mexico, with a view to preserve peace on honorable terms to both sides. The result of the debate was decided against any interference in behalf of Maximilian and his followers, and an expression of confidence in the ability of the Mexicans to deal with their prisoners of war according to the law of nations.

From all our exchanges we get glowing accounts of the prospect of the wheat crop. So far as we can learn from conversation with gentlemen from the surrounding counties, the prospect is equally good hereabouts. This is cause for heartfelt gratitude in view of the great scarcity of breadstuffs all over the land.—PATERSON EXPRESS.

In the British House of Commons, on the 25th of March, Lord Stanley officially contradicted a report which had gone the rounds of the papers, to the effect that communication of an unfriendly character had been received from the United States government, on the subject of the Alabama claims.

From Richmond.

Anniversary of President Lincoln's Death.—Discussion of Public Affairs by Colored People. Richmond, April 12.—To-day the negroes commemorated the anniversary of President Lincoln's death. About two thousand met in a grove at the edge of the city, and were addressed by two whites and several colored persons. One of the whites made a radical speech, cautioning them to beware of the political designs of the whites, and insist on equality before the law, and in the schools. One of the colored speakers made a conservative speech. He said he was raised at the South. These were his people and he wanted to be at peace with them.

To-night the theatre was densely packed to hear addresses by R. T. Daniel, City Attorney; William H. McFarland, President of the Council, and Marnaduke Johnson, an eminent lawyer, delivered by invitation of the colored people. Solon Robinson presided. All the speakers gave them advice as to their new relations, advising them not to be led to suspect the friendly intention of the white citizens of the South by designing men, who were forming them into secret societies for political purposes. Outside the theatre a large crowd of negroes were standing dissuading others from going in. The audience inside were about half colored people. During the speeches, when the question of peace between the whites and blacks was named, there were loud cries for peace.

The State Republican Convention assembled in Richmond yesterday. Forty-nine counties were represented. Two hundred and ten delegates were present, of whom a majority were colored men. After perfecting its organization the Convention adjourned until to-day. The despatch in relation to the Convention, though coming through the Associated Press, is evidently partisan and strongly biased against the Convention and its objects.

The Tennessee State Conservative Convention was held in Nashville on Tuesday. The representation of negroes was very small, only six being present. Speeches of the most violent character, denouncing Congress and the Radical party and applauding the Confederacy, were delivered. Emerson Etheridge was nominated for Governor.

Shocking Accident. On the 10th inst., Mrs. Maria Greene, wife of Major S. C. Greene, U. S. A., was killed at the depot in Columbus, Ohio. She was en route from Louisville, Kentucky, to Philadelphia, and got off the Cincinnati train to wait for the Pittsburg train to be made up. She had been seated in the dining hall but a few moments, when hearing a train moving, and supposing it was the one she was waiting for, she ran out and attempted to get on one of the cars while the train was in motion. Grasping the railing on the steps of the car, and failing to place her feet upon the steps, she was thrown under the train, and before she could be rescued the wheels of the cars passed over her, crushing her on head, breaking several ribs, and cutting her skull. She was dragged a hundred feet before the train was stopped, and was so terribly mangled that she lived only ten minutes. Her remains were privately taken care of, and await the arrival of her husband, who is now serving on the staff of General Pope, at Montgomery, Alabama.

Both Major Greene and his wife are well known to many of our readers, as they formerly resided in this city. Major Greene was on duty in the Subsistence Department, under General Beckwith and Colonel Bell, for several years.—WASHINGTON STAR.

The Savannah Republican says: "Accounts represent the condition of things in Camden and Bryan counties as truly alarming; the wildest days of St. Domingo seem to have been reproduced in Southern Georgia. In one county two negroes were sentenced to death for murder, and three others to the penitentiary. A mob of colored people surrounded the jail, broke open the doors, and allowed the prisoners to escape. In another county men were flogging to the trees within a short distance of the public roads, and had been hanging there for several days."

A man named Ingraham, who is believed to have been an accomplice of the brothers Pixley in the murder of General Hargis, in Vernon county, Missouri, has been hung by the citizens of that county. General Bailey had gone with the Sheriff to arrest the Pixleys for swindling, and was retreating with them in custody when he was murdered. The Pixleys escaped, taking with them the General's horse, valued at $1,400 in cash. Ingraham was believed to have assisted in the murder, and two other persons who are supposed to have been cognizant of it have been arrested.

The colored citizens of Columbus, Ohio, at a meeting on the 8th inst., adopted resolutions thanking Congress and the State Legislature for their recent action, and promising to stand by the Republican party as the hope of liberty on this continent. They also requested their brethren throughout the State to appoint delegates to a Convention to meet in Columbus on the second Tuesday in June next, to determine upon the wisest measures to be adopted by them to have the word white stricken from the Constitution of Ohio.

A physician of Goshen, Ohio, named Harker, committed suicide on Thursday, because his children opposed his marrying again. He bequeathed his watch and carriage to the widow he had intended to lead to the altar, and requested that he be buried in his proposed bridal garb.

Mine Explosion in Schuylkill County. CORRESPONDENCE OF PHILA. INQUIRER. ASHLAND, April 13.—I send you the particulars, so far as they can be ascertained, of the accident which occurred in the coal mine of Bancroft, Lewis & Co., near this place. About nine o'clock on Friday evening an explosion of fire damp took place while twelve men were yet in the mine, eleven of whom have been taken out dead. One man was rescued alive, but in a state of convulsive excitement, caused by the inhalation of sulphur, and raving to such an extent that it required the efforts of five men to hold him. He was placed under the medical treatment of Dr. Swain, of this place, who to-day considers him out of danger and in a fair way to a speedy recovery. As to how the accident happened nothing is yet known; all those who could possibly give any information regarding the cause or origin being killed, excepting Kinzie, the one mentioned above, whose medical attendant will not allow him to be questioned on the subject.—Those killed were buried yesterday.

Most of their families are left in destitute circumstances. One woman lost a husband and a brother. The whole town wears a degree of sadness before unknown. This is the second accident of the kind which has happened in this mine; the first occurring last summer, by which twenty or thirty men were badly injured, and two or three killed. John Kinzie, this afternoon, is said to have regained his senses and will soon be able to give some account of the cause of Friday's accident.—Had the explosion occurred in the day, no doubt sixty or seventy men would have been killed.

In 1860, by the census there were 76,000 black people living in Pennsylvania. Probably the number has been increased to 80,000. Philadelphia has a larger number than any other county; that is, 25,000. They support seventeen churches, worth $225,000, with a membership of 5,440, and 1,700 Sunday School scholars. They have twelve or fifteen free schools, with a daily average attendance of 2,200. There are thirty-four negroes in the city whose combined wealth amounts to $1,358,000. The richest man is Stephen Smith, a lumber merchant. He owns seventy-five houses in fee simple, and is worth not less than three hundred thousand dollars. Haris Lindsay, a bounty broker during the war, is worth two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Five artists and a number of excellent musicians receive distinguished mention. Among the latter is the "Black Swan."

There have been sixteen murders committed in Jackson county, Indiana, in the past two years, most of them shockingly cold-blooded and premeditated. The law-loving citizens are becoming much alarmed at this condition of affairs, and are determined to put an end to it.

By way of Havana, we have advices from Vera Cruz to the 14th inst. The city was closely besieged by the Liberals, its supply of water and provisions cut off and the yellow fever was prevailing in its worst form.

Wisconsin takes the lead in woman's suffrage. Both houses of the Legislature have passed an amendment to the Constitution, to be submitted to the people, extending the right of suffrage to all persons over the age of twenty-one years.

Deposit one cent in bank, double the amount deposited weekly for one year—as one cent the first week, two cents the second week, four cents the third week, and so on for the fifty-two weeks—what do you think the amount would be at the end of the year? Figure it up, boys, and see.

A roach which Gen. Cass bought in France when he was Minister to that country is now in a lively stable at Saginaw, Mich. Twice, before the era of railroads, Gen. Cass journeyed from Detroit to Washington in it. During the past ten years it has been but little used, and five years ago it was bought for $100. It is a most commodious and serviceable vehicle.

A City Station. A friend relates the following incident, which transpired at a recent session of the New York M. E. Conference, at which he was present in the city of New York. One of the ministers, who had been stationed at Coxsackie, just before leaving home to attend Conference, had taken a violent cold, and when he reached the city was so dangerously ill from pneumonia that he was obliged to take to his bed.

On the last day of the Conference, just as the Bishop had risen to announce the annual appointments, the fact was communicated that the clergyman alluded to was dying. This created, of course, a cessation of the assignments, and all joined in prayer for the departing brother. As the season of prayer ended, the friend at whose house the clergyman had stopped came in and stated that he was dead.

"As he was dying," said this friend, "he bade me take this message to the Conference: 'Tell them,' said he, with his finger pointing to Heaven, 'that my ambition is satisfied; I am appointed to a City Station.'"—EXCHANGER.

Washington, April 18.—Attorney General Stanbery gave notice in the Supreme Court to-day, that he desired to file a bill denying the jurisdiction of the Court in the Mississippi and Georgia injunction matter. The case will be argued a week from to-morrow.

This is very important, as indicating that the President does not intend to oppose the military bill. The Republicans are very much elated by it.

Our foreign despatches continue to bring reports of the threatening position of affairs between France and Prussia. The King of Prussia's speech at the closing of the North German Parliament, has increased the feeling of distrust that was generally prevailing throughout the country. Both France and Prussia are reported to be arming and making active military preparations.

The publishers of the morning daily papers in New Orleans have mutually agreed to suspend their Monday morning editions, in order to give their employees the full benefit of a day of rest.

The Augusta (Ga.) Press says there is a prospect that an extensive crop of wheat will be harvested in Upper Georgia this season. An unusually large amount was sown, and the fields give every indication of a large yield.

A Divorced Wife as Bridesmaid to her Husband's Second Choice.

The New Albany (Indiana) LEADER describes a peculiar matrimonial difficulty as follows:

We yesterday announced the marriage of one Dr. Wight to a Miss Chamberlain. At the last term of the Floyd Circuit Court, this man Wight made application for a divorce from his wife, the principal witness against the wife being the woman Chamberlain. Judge Bicknell heard the evidence, and refused to grant the divorce, administering to the man Wight a severe and menacing reprimand for his proceedings in the case.

Wight, however, determined to marry his swift witness, Chamberlain, again sought a divorce in Huntington county, where he obtained it, the Court hearing but one side of the testimony, that given by the woman, Chamberlain. Having his divorce in his pocket, Wight and the Chamberlain were married yesterday.

Wight's wife is a hopeless invalid; at least she was so much an invalid as to be no longer able to satisfy the desires of her husband. The other woman probably filled the bill much better. Wight married his first wife when she was young, beautiful and in good health. She is yet possessed of good looks, notwithstanding the afflictions which have hovered over her. She was of good family and reputed wealthy at the time of her marriage. But after serving Wight for thirteen years she was put away by divorce, because she was an invalid.

At the wedding yesterday, this divorced wife stood beside the woman that was to usurp her place—stood there like a living corpse—like a withered flower—as bridesmaid—the bridesmaid of the witness against her in the suit for divorce; the only witness. If she stood there voluntarily we have in her an example of woman's devotion such as we never before heard of. If she stood there through compulsion, the curse and blight of the Almighty will follow the husband and his new made wife (formerly his divorced wife's nurse) to avenge the wrongs of the wretched woman.

Wight and his wife and his divorced wife, left the city in company together yesterday. If the husband and the wife have any feelings of humanity left, this injured woman's pale face will haunt them like a spectre wherever they may travel.

Terrible Affair. Mrs. Farman, of Chicago, who had been separated from her husband about two years, and who was acting as housekeeper for a gentleman in that place, last week administered a dose of strychnine to her little daughter, aged about two years, in some milk. She sat down quietly with the child in her lap and watched the effects of the poison until the child was dead. She then took a dose of the poison herself and in ten minutes was a corpse. She had been for some time endeavoring to get a divorce from her husband, at the same time laboring under the delusion the gentleman for whom she was keeping house would marry her. A few days previous to the tragedy the gentleman married another lady, and the disappointment induced her to commit the deed.

A London despatch states that news had been received there that the negotiations between France and Prussia in relation to Luxembourg have been broken off. The news created some excitement in commercial circles in this county yesterday, and gold again advanced.

The Republican Convention of Virginia, composed of white and colored delegates, adopted resolutions refusing to support for office any person who does not openly identify himself with the Republican party. A resolution endorsing President Johnson was voted down.

Accidental Death. BALTIMORE, April 17.—J. W. Townsend, chief clerk and freight agent of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, was killed at the Relay House, this morning by the cars. He was formerly connected with the Western railroads.
